PUBLICATION

INDIA'S FIRST CURATED TELEMEDICINE REGISTRY

CAHO PARTNER PROGRAMS

Webinar: Publication of India's first curated Telemedicine Registry

Telemedicine is now firmly established as a necessity in the healthcare ecosystem across the country. Its endorsement through the release of Telemedicine Practice Guidelines by GOI and the recognition by healthcare insurance companies has further catalysed the ease of its adoption.

The alliance led by DHIndia Association in partnership with CAHO, HIMSS India, CHIME India and supported by NRCeS understood the need to create a registry of telemedicine solution platforms so as to help end-users to choose something that fits their needs.

A webinar on Telemedicine Registry for India -conducted on 27th October 2020 highlighted the matrix used to classify and compare various products.

Moderator: Dr Uma Nambiar, Chairperson- DHIndia Association

Panellists: Dr Vijay Agarwal (CAHO), Mr Girish Kulkarni (DHIndia), Mr Jeyaseelan Jeyaraj (HIMSS India), Mr Gaur Sunder (NRCeS)

The main objective of this platform is to make users aware of the solution various providers in India and parameters that will help in comparison and choosing the solution adhering to National Digital Health Blueprint (NDHB) and Telemedicine Practice Guidelines (TPG).

NEW! CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

CERTIFICATION FOR PROBLEM SOLVING

CAHO ACADEMY

Certification for Problem-Solving

Healthcare Quality Improvement is about solving chronic problems in organizations which are embedded in managerial processes and do not come with alarms. Therefore, tragically, they hatch chronic waste referred to as Cost Of Poor Quality (COPQ). COPQ in any organization is at least one-third of the total costs.

The proposition to management: Halve your COPQ and double your profit!

CAHO - QIMPRO presents Certification for Problem Solving commencing from 26th November. It comprises 8 one-hour masterclass sessions and a digital course- "Problem Solving Pro". The program has been designed to build healthcare professionals who can adept at recognizing and solving chronic problems in cross-functional managerial processes in a hospital.
