OVERVIEW

The COVID-19 spread has changed day-to-day life in unprecedented ways.

Many healthcare professionals become COVID positive on a daily basis in their line of duty. The hospitals have undertaken various steps towards worker safety and to minimize the exposure of healthcare workers from the deadly virus.

In this context, CAHO in association with ENVIS Resource Partner, ICMR - National Institute of Occupational Health, Ahmedabad (ICMR - NIOH) is conducting a National Level Competition on 'Measures taken by Hospitals Towards Worker/Workplace Safety During COVID' supported by Global Society of HSE Professionals (GSHP)

This initiative will help us to identify and recognise worker safety practices in hospitals and also to learn from the best practices.
